

“HOW DOES GOD COMMUNICATE WITH US?”

1. Read Genesis 1:1-23. In what way is the character of God revealed through what He has made? What can people discover about God through a study of the sun and stars, a study of the water and sky, or a study of plants and animals?

2. Read Genesis 1:24-31. In what sense can man be described as being in the image of God? What can people discover about God through a study of mankind? Through a study of parents and children? Through a study of kings and artists and all kinds of people?

3. Read Psalm 139:1-16. What details about our lives does God know? Are there any details God does not know (see Matthew 10:30)? What does it mean to you when you realize how intimately God knows you? And how greatly God desires to be known by you?

4. Read John 1:1-18. God communicates through His creation, but He reveals Himself much more fully through His Son, Jesus. What does it mean that Jesus is "The Word"? What does it mean that Jesus is "God the One and Only" (v. 18)?

5. Read John 14:23-24. Here is an important principle about communication. True listening to an authority must result in obeying. What is Jesus saying in these verses? How did this week's sermon tie together the themes of communication and obedience?

“HOW DOES GOD COMMUNICATE WITH US?”

1. Read Genesis 1:1-23. In what way is the character of God revealed through what He has made? What can people discover about God through a study of the sun and stars, a study of the water and sky, or a study of plants and animals?

2. Read Genesis 1:24-31. In what sense can man be described as being in the image of God? What can people discover about God through a study of mankind? Through a study of parents and children? Through a study of kings and artists and all kinds of people?

3. Read Psalm 139:1-16. What details about our lives does God know? Are there any details God does not know (see Matthew 10:30)? What does it mean to you when you realize how intimately God knows you? And how greatly God desires to be known by you?

4. Read John 1:1-18. God communicates through His creation, but He reveals Himself much more fully through His Son, Jesus. What does it mean that Jesus is "The Word"? What does it mean that Jesus is "God the One and Only" (v. 18)?

5. Read John 14:23-24. Here is an important principle about communication. True listening to an authority must result in obeying. What is Jesus saying in these verses? How did this week's sermon tie together the themes of communication and obedience?